Plaza Property Advisors, Inc. Provides Real Estate Due Diligence Service for Baird Capital Partners in the Acquisition and Merger of UPT Plastics, Inc. and K&W Medical Specialties-leading suppliers of custom molded plastic parts and components for the medical device industry.

New Berlin, NJ; Tempe, AZ; Westfield, PA (April 11, 2008)- Plaza Property Advisors, Inc (“PPA”), the Chicago-based real estate advisor, strategist, developer, and investor, announced today that it has performed real estate due diligence for Baird Capital Partners in the acquisition and merger of two plastic component suppliers to the medical industry. Due diligence services included the following...

- Property & Lease Review - HQ and manufacturing facilities
Identifying and mitigating real estate pitfalls
- Lease Restructuring - Establishing market rent for the properties and creating arms-length leases that serve the business plan going forward
- Transfer of Liability - Mitigating deferred maintenance exposure

PPA is the pioneer in Real Estate due Diligence for corporate acquisitions and mergers. Our review of the real estate interests (leasehold and/or freehold) of the target acquisition seeks to uncover real estate pitfalls which we then mitigate. We see our business growing as Private Equity firms address corporate real estate more proactively, recalling the wisdom of Benjamin Franklin- “an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.”

PPA has been successful performing real estate due diligence as a developer and investor for its own account and for clients for over thirty (30) years. Their due diligence, investment and ownership experience provide them with a unique perspective which makes them a valuable resource for investors making corporate acquisitions or mergers.

Colt Landreth, Plaza Property Advisors Principal, views their real estate due diligence as a microcosm of the private equity firm’s role of creating efficiencies to enhance performance.
